Jazz at the Movies

17 August | 2.00pm – 3.00pm

Award-winning vocalist and West End actress Simone Craddock rolls out the red carpet for a technicolour tribute to jazz, blues, and timeless film classics.

From the smoky intrigue of film noir to the glittering glamour of Golden Age Hollywood, Simone and her swinging jazz band reimagine iconic movie soundtracks that will tug at your heartstrings and have you tapping your toes from the opening fanfare right until the final credits roll.

Drama! Adventure! Romance! Comedy! Expect it all in this Hollywood hit parade that critics said “raised the bar for what a vocal jazz show should be”.

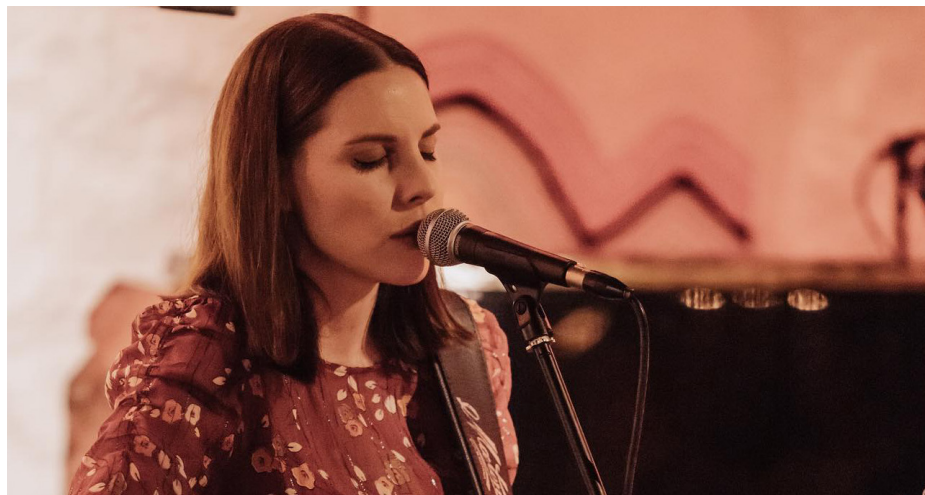

Tchéga: Créole Folk

21 September | 2.00pm – 3.00pm

Tuck a hibiscus flower behind your ear because this colourful and carefree band are set to whisk you away to the Indian Ocean islands with their Créole folk music.

Hailing from Reunion Island, singer-songwriter Carole Katz crafts songs that call upon the tropical sounds she grew up with. Think vibrant beats and sunny melodies inspired by the Indian Ocean.

Paired with the catchy drum rhythms of Tao Issaro, the funky bass lines of Nathan Joseph, gorgeous guitar work from Ridge Moss and some saucy sax from Adrien Joseph, this fun-loving band and their dancers are sure to bring the feel-good island vibes.

19 October | 2.00pm – 3.00pm

Stunning singular vocalist and WAM ‘Song of the Year’ winner Helen Shanahan presents an exquisite tribute to some of history’s most famous songbirds, intertwined with some of her own original material.

Best said by Clare Bowditch, “Once I heard her voice, I couldn’t un-hear it. She has such talent, such a beautiful voice! Helen has one of the most interesting, captivating vocal turns of phrase that I have ever heard.”

Don’t miss this spectacular show from one of WA’s top singers, supported by her equally impressive band consisting of Grammy award-winning Lucky Oceans, Ben Vanderwal, Harry Mitchell and Karl Florrison.
