As a working mum and step-mum navigating life's twists, I've learnt to listen hard and adapt fast.

I'm Sam Law, and I'm passionate about our community – the people, the local business, and the natural spots we love.

Growing up locally and raising kids here, working in community service positions, I've seen how decisions shape our future. I care about protecting our environment, making our spaces safer, and ensuring our roads and coastlines are looked after for generations.

With a focus on connection and critical thinking, I'll bring fresh perspective and integrity to council. I understand the policies, motions, and amendments that'll help bring progress to our community while protecting the things we cherish. Taking the time to understand others, is key,

If you want a councillor who works well with others, makes decisions based on community needs, and puts in the hard yak-as for you, vote for me.
