Footnotes:

Definition of Elector:

The Local Government Act 1995 states that an elector may be one of the following:

- a resident owner or occupier enrolled to vote at State elections;
- an owner of rateable property (eg an absentee land owner or an owner of business premises, vacant land or other non-residential property);
- an occupier of rateable property (eg a tenant of business premises or other non-residential property)

Voting:

- Each elector present at the meeting is entitled to one vote on each matter to be decided, but does not have to vote.
- · All decisions are to be made by a simple majority vote.
- Voting is to be conducted so that no voter's vote is secret.

Speaking at Electors Meetings

The Standing Orders state that a person who is not an elector may not take any part in any discussion at the meeting, unless the meeting, by a motion so permits, but that person is not entitled to vote.

When addressing the meeting, please use the public microphone and state your name and address for minute taking purposes.
