WALKER, Simon

A Joondalup resident for the past eighteen years, Captain Simon Walker is a local business owner and serves as a Justice of the Peace. As a former ship's master and company managing director he has significant experience of organisational management, strategic planning and oversight.

Committed to social issues, he is a Street Chaplain and works with groups concerned with ending homelessness; in this context, he already has frequent interaction with the City of Joondalup Community Development team.

Experienced as both a School Governor and the Chairman of a Not for Profit organisation, Captain Walker has a history of public service. He is particularly interested in the local building approvals process, providing superior sporting/leisure facilities, supporting retirees and veterans, and getting value for money for local ratepayers.

As a yachtsman and boat owner he also has a keen interest in the development of the Ocean Reef Marina.
