MILLER, Tammy

A WA resident my whole life, I moved to the City of Joondalup three years ago, having followed my partner who has resided here for 25 years. I am currently a stay at home mum with a blended family of three children.

I have a Bachelors in Politics and English, a Masters in Professional Accounting and am working towards a Law Degree. I have experience working in the public sector, legal and accounting fields. I have also taught ESL in Australia, Asia, Latin America and Europe so have been lucky enjoy to work with a diverse group of people and experience many different cultures and customs.

I believe in helping others and getting involved. I am committed to developing inclusive communities where everyone is heard and valued. I believe in sustainable progress, effective use of resources and practical policies that balance the needs of the environment, residents, businesses and budgets.
