

City of Joondalup

City of Joondalup Native Birds

There are some beautiful native birds that can be found in the City of Joondalup. Keep an eye out for them in your local bushland, wetlands or at the beach. You can encourage some of these birds to visit your garden by planting waterwise local, native plants.

Forest Red-tailed Black Cockatoo (Vulnerable)
Calyptorhynchus banksii naso | Photo: Rick Dawson

Carnaby's Black-Cockatoo (Endangered)
Calyptorhynchus latirostris | Photo: Bill Betts

Whistling Kite
Haliastur sphenurus

Osprey (Migratory)
Pandion haliaetus

Southern Boobook
Ninox novaeseelandiae | Photo: Bill Betts

Tawny Frogmouth
Podargus strigoides

Rainbow Bee-eater
Merops ornatus

Splendid Fairy-wren
Malurus splendens

Silvereye
Zosterops lateralis

Brown Honeyeater
Lichmera indistincta

Red Wattlebird
Anthochaera carunculata

Great Egret
Ardea modesta | Photo: Bill Betts

Yellow-billed Spoonbill
Platalea flavipes

Nankeen Night-Heron
Nycticorax caledonicus | Photo: Bill Betts

Australian Wood Duck
Chenonetta jubata

Pacific Black Duck
Anas superciliosa

Purple Swamphen
Porphyrio porphyrio | Photo: Bill Betts

Great Crested Grebe
Podiceps cristatus | Photo: Bill Betts

Blue-billed Duck (Priority species)
Oxyura australis

Musk Duck
Biziura lobata

Pink-eared Duck
Malacorhynchus membranaceus

Australian Shelduck
Tadorna tadornoides