HAND, Claire

As a lifelong resident of Joondalup, I understand the importance of community voice and have an unwavering commitment to representing our residents, ratepayers and businesses.

I'm determined to build a council which is inclusive and works hard to deliver on things that matter to you. As an active community volunteer, I have experience advising local government on youth initiatives.

I stand for:

- Genuine community consultation and engagement
- Bringing rate increases under control
- Stronger strategic direction for sustainable housing development
- Stimulating the local economy, supporting jobs and rejuvenating the city
- Focusing on integrity, transparency and accountability
- Free hour parking in the CBD

Together we'll fight to create positive opportunities for all.
