Events and Programs

Spring 2023
September | October | November
Duncraig | Joondalup | Whitford | Woodvale

Kaya Wandjoo

Hello and welcome. Did you know that Libraries present an average of 194 events each month with more than 4,100 attendees? That's pretty impressive. Some require bookings and payment, many are free – basically this is your one stop pocket sized guide for things to do this Spring.

Of course, books are still a pivotal element to our service where we invite you to browse the shelves, snap up a Quick Read, snaffle a convenient Book Bundle or get cosy with an eBook or audiobook online. Membership is free and all are welcome to join.

A special campaign to look out for in November is Food for Fines where we are taking donations of food for selected local charities to help families in need over the summer. Seek out page 17 for more details.

We hope you enjoy these events and programs this spring and look forward to seeing you soon.

Happy reading.

Food for Fines

Wednesday 1 November – Thursday 30 November

Food for Fines is a community food drive that presents a great opportunity for City of Joondalup residents and library members to support the community.

All donations of non-perishable food items in cans, bottles and boxes will be shared between local community organisations: Patricia Giles Centre for Non-Violence, The Spiers Centre and No Limits, to assist families and people in need in the lead up to Christmas.

Acceptable Food for Fines donations can be:

- Peanut butter or spreads.
- Canned meats, chicken, tuna, salmon.
- Canned vegetables or fruit.
- Pasta or rice.
- Soups or sauces.
- Cereal.
- Fruit cake.
- Dinner sauces and mixes.
- Coffee, tea and biscuits.
- Cooking oil.

As pets are also an important part of family life, sealed canned food or dried biscuits for cats and dogs will also be accepted.

Food items need to be in good condition and staff will not be able to accept:

- Open, damaged packages or repackaged food.
- Expired food.
- Perishables or food requiring refrigeration.

* Library members may have $1.00 in current fines cleared for each donated food item, Food for Fines does not include replacement fees for lost or damaged materials, card replacement fees or future overdue fines.
