Enrolment status

AMORIN-WOODS, Deisy is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the City of Joondalup.

I am a health professional, educator and small business owner.

I have resided in the Joondalup district for nearly 40 years where I raised my children.

Being a health provide I deeply care about providing healthy living and safe spaces. As a second-generation educator I highly value the importance of quality education, and as a small business owner I am aware of the challenges faced by small businesses yet value their vital role in our community fabric.

Having long worked across the three sectors, while also volunteering for various causes I have proven that I am deeply committed to meeting the diverse needs of our rich and diverse community.

I believe a local government ought to be transparent, committed and accountable and that community members must be given every opportunity to participate in their local community.

I pledge to promote sensible and continuous growth in our community while promoting the principles of our local government legislation.
