

Candidate Details

Ballot paper name	EDWARDES, Colin
Candidate name	Colin EDWARDES
District	City of Joondalup
Nominating for	Councillor for South-West Ward
Election type	Ordinary
Enrolment status	EDWARDES, Colin is eligible to stand for election as a resident of the City of Joondalup.

Colin lives in Hillarys with his wife Cheryl and their bullmastiff, Lucy. His son and grandchildren attended St Marks Anglican Community School, with 2 more enrolled in 2024.

He understands the intergenerational issues that families are navigating. Today's, cost of living crisis means decisions made by Council need to be prudent and consider what impact Council decisions will have on the household budgets for local families.

Being a City of Joondalup councillor is demanding. Colin knows the value and importance of hard work. He has a lifetime of experience gained through serving in senior government roles, including on the Administrative Appeals Tribunal. He was also a member of the PMH Foundation Board. Colin's experience means he will read, review, and question all material provided from the council administration. Colin is a member of the MAAC, the AICD, and the West Coast Eagles.

Colin will also bring fresh ideas, a legacy of integrity, and new energy to the role of a councillor.
